COUNTY VISITED BY HEAVY STORM SUNDAY.

A heavy storm of wind, rain and hail, accompanied by vivid lightning and thunder, passed over sections of Bourbon county Sunday afternoon, doing considerable damage. The storm caused considerable interference with telephone service, wires being down in some sections, and the service disorganized. Heavy rains swelled the small streams until they overflowed their banks, and swept away property, such as fencing and other movables. In the Black's Cross Roads vicinity there was virtually a cloudburst, the water streaming over the hillsides, uprooting and sweeping away newly planted tobacco and other crops. Hail fell in plentiful quantities near Ruddles Mills, but little damage was done. Near Black's Cross Roads a bunch of sheep feeding on a rising piece of ground between two small creeks were entirely cut off by the rising waters, which finally engulfed and drowned them. No damage was done in Paris by the storm, which seemed to have spent its violence in the county.

Reports from various sections of the county yesterday indicated the severity of the storm to have been felt in those vicinities. Parties from Paris returning from Ruddles Mills, where they had been observing Flower Mission Day at the County Infirmary, stated that the hail was very heavy along the pike between Paris and Ruddles Mills and in some places was piled up in little mounds.

A storm of rain and hail fell at Versailles shortly after two o'clock Sunday afternoon. About six miles out on the Frankfort Pike heavy hail did considerable damage to growing crops, especially wheat, oats, rye and barley. The hail which fell ranged from the size of a pigeon's egg to that of a hen's egg.

INTERESTING OIL NOTES

No. 3 well, recently drilled in by the Owsley Oil & Gas Co., in which Paris and Bourbon county capitalists are largely interested, at a depth of more than 1,300 feet, which came in flowing, will be "shot" in a few days.

Mr. Fred Fister, of Paris, left Friday for Munday, Texas, in the interest of a Texas oil company in which he has holdings. Mr. Fister is very optimistic regarding the prospects of the company and reports the progress of sinking a new well, which has reached a depth of 2,400 feet.

The Elizabethtown News has the following interesting oil note: "Reliable information reaches here that Hon. James M. Richardson, of Glasgow, bought the oil leases of 450 acres in Allen county for which he paid $50,000 and the next day sold the same for $75,000, making a profit of $25,000 in a day."

A negro woman claims she is pumping oil out of her water well at her home in "Poynterville," a colored suburb of Winchester. Her story has caused considerable excitement, and a well-known colored porter consulted with his white friends on the advisability of organizing an oil company to develop the prospect.

Several wells are due in the coming week in the Alreded section of Lee county. The Paris Oil & Gas Company has about completed No. 3, Celia Kincaid, while the Frye-Sweetster Company is expecting a nice producer in No. 4 on the E. King tract. In the same locality, the Big Sinking Oil Company is drilling No. 2 on the Warden farm.

Announcement is made that the Cumberland Pipe Line Company has greatly extended its operations during the past two years, and is considering further extensions of its plant so as to keep up with the rapid development of the field. Its lines are now taking care of approximately 20,000 barrels per day, from the productive pools of Lee, Estill, Powell and Wolfe counties.

Pipe line runs for the week ending May 30 total 108,686.86 barrels, as reported by the Cumberland Pipe Line Company. Of this amount the Big Sinking district of Lee county supplied 68,819.31 barrels. Two significant features of the report are the excellent showing made by the Hell Creek district, the new pool being developed in Lee county, which delivered 1,499.62 barrels, and the falling off in the production of Ross Creek, Estill county, which reports only 2,296.50 barrels.

J. E. Wetton, of Beattyville, will be in Paris on Tuesday to close a contract with the Lane Oil Company for wells on their Hell Creek lease, as good wells are being reported from this district. The Lane Company expects to get their share of the big producers. The issue of ten-cent stock has been rapidly subscribed and when outside points have been heard from it is believed same is away oversold. This is going same for a company organized only a few days ago.

The Parboken Oil Company, of Paris, brought in its No. 4 well on the Kinkead lease in Lee county Saturday. This is the best well on the lease, and is considered by the drillers as a 150-barrel well flush. The No. 4 well beat the No. 3 well in on account of a fishing job on No. 3, but the latter is expected in this week and will in all probability be a better well than the No. 4. This company also expects to couple up with the pipe line its No. 1 well on the Jones lease. The Parboken now has six producing wells and is in its infancy.

The property of the Rice Oil Company in Elliott county was sold recently at a master commissioner's sale in that county to Paris parties for a sum said to be $10,000. It is reported that Mr. James H. Moreland, of Paris, one of those who bought this tract, is planning to start developments at once. The property was sold to satisfy the demands of the creditors of this company. The first well to have been brought in in the Elliott county field is reported to have been on this tract, which is known as the Vess Peters farm. One gasser is on the holdings also.

AUTOMOBILE ARRESTED.

Several days ago a prominent farmer of this county is going through the Cane Ridge neighborhood in his machine had the misfortune to run out of gasoline and had to abandon his car in front of the residence of Mr. Aylette Buckner, on the Cane Ridge pike. The car, a 1916 model Buick roadster, stood there for some time until some one notified Sheriff Ollie Marshall, who went out and brought it to a local garage. It was at first thought the machine had been stolen and abandoned, but the owner put in an appearance and explained matters and secured his machine and departed happy.

IN THE SERVICE OF THEIR COUNTRY.

Mr. Joe Smits, son of Mr. Jan Smits, of East Paris, has been accepted at the Lexington naval recruiting office for naval service. He was sent to Louisville for further physical examination before being finally inducted into the service.

Mr. James B. Dempsey, of Scott avenue, received a letter Saturday from his son, Albert Dempsey, telling of his promotion in the service. Young Dempsey, who is stationed at U. S. wireless station at Key West, Fla., has been promoted to Chief Radio Operator, a position of great responsibility.

Mr. Wm. C. Rule is the guest of his uncle, Mr. E. T. Rule in White Addition. Mr. Rule is a returned soldier who enlisted in the service from Nicholas county, and recently arrived from overseas. He is here on a furlough from Camp Benjamin Harrison, and expects to be discharged at an early date.

Miss Margaret Blake, of Winchester received a message Saturday morning from Washington, announcing that a cageman received for her from Archangel, Russia, announced that her brother, Earl Blake, was leaving for France, on his way home. He is a brother of Mr. John Blake, of Paris. Six companies of the 339th Infantry have already left Archangel.

Lawrence James, of Paris, is another of the lucky doughboys to reach the shores of America, having landed recently at New York. He will be mustered out of the service at one of the demobilization camps, and will return to Paris to make his home. James was on the Texan-Mexican border for many months before going overseas with his outfit.

Mrs. Will Wornall, of near Paris, received a message Saturday from her brother, Private Scott Woodford, stating he had arrived safely at Newport News, and would proceed to Camp Zachary Taylor, where he would be mustered out shortly. He was a member of the machine gun company in the 317th U. S. Infantry, A. E. F., and had seen considerable service overseas. He will be gladly welcomed home by his friends and relatives.

Richard Huffman, of Millersburg, who was recently discharged from the aviation branch of the service, where he gained the rank of Lieutenant, has gone to Cincinnati, where he will enter the Summer School of the University of Cincinnati, and prepare to enter the Medical School in the fall. His wife, who was Miss Louise Myall before her marriage, will join him later. Mr. Huffman is the son of the late Dr. W. W. Huffman, in his time one of the most prominent and successful physicians in Millersburg.

Mr. Henry C. Curtis, of Paris, received a telegram Friday night from his son, Lieut. Earl Curtis, announcing his safe arrival at New York, from overseas, where he has been in the service for many months. Lieut. Curtis will remain in New York a few days until he is assigned to the camp where he will receive his final discharge papers. He was a member of the U. S. army stationed on the Texas border for a long time, and received various promotions from time to time. He was given a high recommendation by the War Department in his promotions.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Santen, of Scott avenue, received a message from their son, Bernard Santen, stating that he had arrived safely at the port of New York, after an uneventful overseas journey, and that he would be sent to Camp Mills, L. I., where he would receive his final discharge papers and return to Paris. Santen had been in France about a year, where he had some experiences out of the ordinary, but escaped unscathed. Before his enlistment in the service he was bookkeeper in the First National Bank of Paris. He was married shortly before his induction into the service, to Miss Alice Benckhart, of Lexington.

Private Geo. L. (Tommie) Frakes writes from overseas to his mother, Mrs. Carrie F. Stone, of Paris, that he hopes to be in the port of New York at a very early date, and that the same hope has been very vividly expressed by a large number of his comrades. Tommie wrote, in part, his letter being dated from Merle Le Tour, France: "We are just in from field inspection, and our packs are still rolled. They say we are soon to part from La Belle France, but I have heard that for the last two months, so it does not excite me the least bit.... I have turned in my gas mask, helmet and nearly everything they would let me, for the less we have, the less we have to carry. I even threw all my souvenirs away, for the only thing I want to bring back to good old America is my precious self.... Heard that we will leave here soon, and that it will be but a short time until we are on the boat. Sure hope we will leave very soon, for eight months in this country is enough for me.... Be sure to have a nice lot of ham, chicken, biscuits, oh, just anything good, for an old veteran like me, just so it isn't soup or slumgum, for I am surely coming back to the States with a regular Boche appetite. BE FRANK WINNER OF LATONIA DERBY.

Be Frank, a bay gelding by Sir John Johnson—Frankness, belonging to C. M. Garrison, of New York, won the Latonia Derby Saturday afternoon. The East's only representative ran the mile and half over a heavy track in 2:37 3-5. Second to Be Frank was Omond, owned by Pat Dunn, and third was Gallaher Bros.' Regalo, the only filly in the race. External, the heavy favorite, was far back.

Be Frank was an outsider in the betting and paid slightly better than 10 to 1 in the mutuals. Omond and Regalo also were long shots. External took the track in the first dozen strides and dominated the running for the first mile. However, before three-quarters had been run he plainly was laboring and it was evident that those who figured that he was not a router, especially in difficult going, had surmised correctly. He faltered when Be Frank and Regalo challenged at the mile ground and although he hung on gamely to his task he dropped back steadily.

Be Frank, with a long, swinging stride, laying close to the place from the start, passed External on the last turn and came into the stretch leading Regalo by a half length. He increased his margin in the final drive. Omond came strong in the stretch to get the place.

Eight accepted the issue, including External, Pastoreau, Regalo, Clermont, Be Frank, Vulcanite, St. Bernard and Omond.

COMMENCEMENT WEEK AT P. H. S.

This is commencement week for the pupils of the Paris High School, and right well are they taking advantage of the few days remaining of the school term. The week's program began with the delivery of the baccalaureate sermon at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning by Rev. Dr. J. L. Cotton, president of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary at Louisville. The handsome new church was comfortably filled with friends and relatives of the fourteen graduates, as well as patrons and friends of the school. The commencement exercises proper will be held in the High School auditorium at eight o'clock next Thursday evening, June 12. The principal address will be delivered to the graduating class by Dr. John Leonard Hill, Dean of Georgetown College, and the diplomas will be presented to the graduates by Prof. Lee Kirkpatrick, Superintendent of the Paris Public Schools. The annual reception to the members of the Senior Class was given last night by the Juniors in the High School gymnasium. Music was rendered by the High School Orchestra and refreshments were served.

The annual Class Day exercises will be held in the High School auditorium this (Tuesday) evening, at eight o'clock. The class had adopted for its colors blue and gold, its flower the Ophelia rose, and has taken the advisory motto, "B Natural." The following attractive program will be rendered:

but unfortunately this did not last long, and he went into slow but sure decline. However, he clung to life, and would not consent to return to his Kentucky home. For several weeks it was realized that the end was not far off.

This promises to be one of the most complete buildings when finished, perhaps, of any of its size in Central Kentucky. This is altogether due to the effort of Messrs. W. D. McIntyre, President of the Farmers Bank, S. M. Allen Cashier, and J. B. Cray, postmaster, who for some time have realized the real need of Millersburg, in this respect. The lobby of the Farmers Bank and postoffice will be much more commodious than at present. While the working departments of each will also be much enlarged and equipped with all the latest conveniences for doing business. The flat above will be materially remodeled. The entire building will be heated by steam or hot water, will also be equipped with electric lights, and will be made as near fireproof as circumstances will permit. The flat will be entered by an attractive and commodious stairway, which will make it easier for anyone residing there or those doing business in the telephone exchange to enter. The entrance will be from the street instead of from a rear hall as it now is.

A year ago last spring he contracted tuberculosis, and it was soon evident to his family and friends that his condition was serious. For a number of years the Hill family have resided in Millersburg, his father, Mr. G. L. Hill, being engaged in the plumbing business. In the summer of 1918, Mr. Hill sold his plumbing business to Mr. Earl Insko, and with his wife and two sons moved to Roswell, N. M., where it was hoped the climatic change might prove beneficial to Earl. Mr. Hill soon found employment after arriving at Roswell, and for a time Earl seemed to improve,

Allen County, A Paradise For "Poor Oil Operators"

(From Louisville Herald, April 17, 1919)

By B. W. GRATZER.

First it was Estill, then later Lee that sent the Kentucky oil boom a sizzling. Now it is Allen. At least it is Allen County for the oil men of moderate means who wish to lease some property and "dig a hole." For it costs less to drill a well and operate a lease in Allen County than any of the oil producing counties of Kentucky. This is not merely a guess, or brought out by careful compilation of costs and expenditures that go hand in hand with oil development, but the cost of operating in Allen County is so much cheaper than other counties of Kentucky, that right now it is drawing more new operators than even in Lee, the end of the Kentucky oil prospector's rainbow.

"There are more drills in Allen County right now than any other county in the State," said a Louisville oil man recently after returning from a tour of inspection of Allen County in search of a suitable lease for his company. There is a reason for this condition. Oil men of experience state without hesitation that a well can be drilled in Allen County for $1,200, while in other oil producing districts the cost can easily run to $5,000 or more if roads are bad and one of the many oil mishaps sets itself in the path of the drill. Water is plentiful in Allen County, which is another factor highly favoring the prospector. In the Eastern oil section of the State, quite frequently during the hot summer months operations ceased on some of the biggest leases because of water shortage.

BARREN AND WARREN, TOO.

Barren and Warren counties, two of the latest comers in the Kentucky oil boom, are sharing the popularity of Allen County as cheap operating districts. In Barren and Warren counties there is much excitement at this time, not only because it costs little to operate there, but because the percentage of dry holes run around only 10 per cent. which is an exceedingly low average.

At the rate new drills are being set up in Allen, Warren and Barren counties, Western Kentucky bids fair to become the center of oil activity in Kentucky this summer, unless another Lee county springs up in the vast possible oil areas that so far have not been scratched by the drill.

IS OPEN COUNTRY

Allen County terrain is the oil man's delight. It is an open country and promises a long life for oil production as it is gotten under a limestone formation. In drilling a well in Allen, casing pipe, which is always a thorn in the driller's side because of so many things that can happen to it and ruin the well, is almost unnecessary. It never requires more than 60 feet of casing for an Allen county well, and this is merely to keep surface waters out of the well as the drill goes down to the limestone formation.

The Gainesville pool is the heart of the Allen County field as tested out to date. A drill put down within the limits of this pool is sure to get oil in paying quantities. Production is spreading from the Gainesville Pool toward Half Way and Allen Springs, several good wells and domes being found in the vicinity of the latter places indicating the good structure of the Gainesville Pool extends farther than is generally believed. Allen is strictly a "dome field," but it is just this feature that makes it possible to drill into oil in almost any section of the county. The productive area is not limited to certain localities as much as it is in Lee, Estill and other Eastern Kentucky counties.

LEASES HELD HIGH

The property owners of Allen, Barren and Warren counties are wide awake. They know what they have and no better proof of this is seen than the prices they demand for leases. Wild cat territory, where oil production is only a chance, is selling for $150 an acre. The same land would have sold for $1.00 an acre before oil was found. The leases are much higher in proportion to the other oil producing counties, but this is as it should be, for none other offers the easy development of Allen County.

The oil man or oil company holding a lease on Allen County property does not have to spend a fortune in developing it, or sinking a test well to ascertain just what he has bought. This in itself, is enough to make it certain the bulk of summer development in Kentucky will center in the western counties of Allen, Warren and Barren.

ENGAGES PARIS MAN.

There is a ready demand now for high-grade men, college graduates in the mechanical and electrical engineering lines. Paris has furnished several of this character to Eastern and Western concerns and there is a demand for more.

Mr. G. C. Lewis, consulting engineer of Philadelphia, a graduate of the 1913 class of the College of Engineering at Kentucky University, was a caller at the University, Saturday, where he engaged the services of Mr. C. Landen Templin, of Paris, as assistant, as soon as he graduated.

Mr. Templin is a son of Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Templin, of Paris, and has made a remarkably good record in his classes at the University, and has been highly recommended by the faculty.

TO ATTEND K. P. GRAND LODGE NOTED COLORED SPEAKER TO SPEAK HERE JUNE 10.

The annual meeting of the Grand Lodge of the Kentucky Knights of Pythias will be held at Lexington today, and it is expected that there will be an unusually large attendance.

The following delegates from Rathbone Lodge, of Paris, will attend the meeting: D. Y. L. Farley, Thos. M. Funk, Chas. W. Fothergill, P. J. McCord, John K. Cahal, Louis Wollstein and B. R. Dickerson.

The Paris lodge is backing Mr. John M. Cahal in his candidacy for Grand Outer Guard of the Grand Lodge, and are expecting that his good and faithful work in the order for the past fifteen years will help to land the honor for him. Paris has not had a Grand Lodge officer for many years, and in selecting Mr. Cahal they could not bestow the honor upon one more worthy of it.

City licenses are now due and should be paid promptly to City Treasurer W. W. Mitchell. Penalties will soon attach to those failing to comply with this law.

BANQUET FOR ORDER OF THE EASTER STAR.

Paris Chapter No. 167, Order of the Eastern Star, called a special meeting Tuesday evening, June 3, in honor of the Worthy Grand Matron, Mrs. Mackie Bennett, of Bowling Green.

The meeting was called to order by Worthy Matron Mrs. Joe James, with a good attendance. After a very interesting and most impressive talk by the Grand Worthy Matron, the members and visiting members were invited to the banquet hall, where a most delicious course was served consisting of cream, home-baked cake and nuts.

This is only the forerunner of the good time planned for July 3, when there will be a real banquet—somebody said chicken. Well, just you come to the Masonic Hall, July 4, take the elevator, and we will have plenty of work, as there are to be six candidates to enter our "Stardom." Let every member be present.

APPELLATE COURT AFFIRMS BOURBON CIRCUIT COURT.

A dispatch to the daily papers from Frankfort, Saturday, says:

"Affirming the Bourbon Circuit Court in the case of John Saure and others against Duncan Taylor's executor and others, the Court of Appeals held that the word 'administrator' used in the will of Taylor meant 'executor.' In the will William M. Taylor was designated as administrator and he, with his brother, L. W. Taylor, settled up the estate after having qualified as executor. The court says that Duncan Taylor meant that William Taylor should be the executor of his estate."

OLD TIME FAVORITE PASSES OVER.

For thirty years Susie Kirwin, one of the most famous comedians of her time, headed the Wilbur Opera Company, an organization that gained fame and some fortune in the theatrical world. Paris theatre-gosers will remember her as appearing here at the old Odd Fellows Hall many years ago. After an eventful career on the stage Miss Kirwin died at her home in Philadelphia a few days ago. She was possessed of a remarkably sweet voice, which she knew how to use to the best advantage in the singing of light opera selections of the day.

THE SAME OLD STORY.

The bull that tried to butt the locomotive off the track had nothing on the driver of an auto that plunged into the city road roller on Main street yesterday about noon. The big road roller was standing on the side of the street doing no harm, when the little auto, which belonged to an uptown garage, crashed into it. The auto was wrecked, comparatively speaking, while the willipus-wallipus and the auto driver escaped injury. The wrecked machine was taken back to the garage for repairs.

INJURED BY HORSE.

William Kearns, residing near Jacksonville, this county, was badly bruised and injured Sunday morning while driving a young horse.

Kearns had been driving a young horse to a brake cart, and was opening a gate leading to the pike, when the horse made a break for liberty. Kearns was holding the animal by a rope around his neck, the other end being attached to his wrist. Kearns was dragged quite a distance before succeeding in freeing himself. He was picked up and hurried to the office of Dr. Chas. G. Daugherty, who attended him. His right shoulder was dislocated and his body considerably bruised and lacerated.

TIDINGS OF GREAT JOY FOR SUN-DAY EXCURSIONISTS.

The Louisville & Nashville authorities are giving out some very joyful information, at least it will be full of pleasure to those who like to get away from home for a short vacation, in the announcement that the Sunday excursions will be resumed soon.

Excursions from Paris to Cincinnati, which were suspended from the inception of the world war, due to the fact that the Government had taken over all the available passenger service for the transportation of troops, will be resumed on Sunday, June 15, and will be continued each Sunday throughout the summer and early fall. The trains will be routed through Paris from Stanford, Lexington and Maysville, and will leave here from the Tenth street passenger station at 8:20 a.m. Returning the trains will leave Cincinnati at 6:50 p.m. from the Fourth Street Passenger Station. No announcement has been definitely made regarding resumption of the excursions to Natural Bridge and Torrent, but it is likely that this service will be resumed at the proper time.

One old-timer, hearing of the resumption of the excursion schedule, remarked: "Who wants to go to Cincinnati now, when all the joy has been taken out of life by the dry?" Things are a little bit different from what they used to be.

FEDERAL GOVERNMENT TO LEAD IN HANDLING TIMBER LANDS

The second of a series of regional conferences planned to consider the special conditions throughout the country, which must be studied to form a broad national policy of forest conservation was held in Asheville, N. C., last week. Forest problems of Kentucky, North Carolina and Tennessee were discussed by the representatives of these States and of the Forest Service of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

It was the sense of the men in attendance that the Federal Government should take the leadership in bringing about through co-operation and assistance to the States such measures as may be necessary for the adequate protection of private timber lands and their renewal after cutting the timber.

"Wood using industries in this country are facing the very serious problem of getting adequate supplies necessary for their continuance," said Col. Henry S. Graves, chief of the Forest Service, who presided.

ALL ABOARD FOR PORTO RICO AFTER JULY 1.

They're drinking hair tonic in Porto Rico now. It has a 60 per cent kick. The stuff is put up by a San Juan firm, in bottles commonly known as "splits." They have crown corks and a handsome label, a line in red ink reading, "Alcohol 60 per cent. For external use." There's a little quinine in each bottle which adds to its tonic effect, and a trace of perfume which disappears when the bottle is uncorked short time. The makers have been ordered to hold 5,000 bottles at the factory ready for shipment. But the formula has been registered according to law and there seems no ground to stop the sale of the mixture. Meantime the natives are getting beautiful jugs on the stock that has been sold.

WHAT'S THE REASON?

Many Paris People in Poor Health Without Knowing the Cause.

There are scores of people who drag out a miserable existence without realizing the cause of their suffering. Day after day they are racked with backache and headache; suffer from nervousness, dizziness, weakness, languor and depression. Perhaps the kidneys have fallen behind in their work of filtering the blood and that may be the root of the trouble. Look to your kidneys, assist them in their work—give them the help they need. You can use no more highly recommended remedy than Doan's Kidney Pills—endorsed by people all over the country and by your neighbors in Paris.

Mrs. John Mastin, 1439 High St., Paris, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills with good results and I know from the help they gave me that they would be just as beneficial in other cases of kidney trouble. I had a dead, dull ache across the small of my back and my kidneys acted irregularly. Doan's Kidney Pills rid me of those complaints, and if I should need a kidney remedy again I would certainly take Doan's."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Mastin had, Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. (adv.)

We don't mind when the other fellow has to stop drinking, but when we ourselves have to stop smoking—that is another thing.

LIFT OFF CORNS!

Drop Freezone on a touchy corn, then lift that corn off with fingers

Doesn't hurt a bit! Drop a little Freezone on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then you lift it right out. Yes, magic! No humbug!

A tiny bottle of Freezone costs but a few cents at any drug store, but is sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the calluses, without soreness or irritation.

Freezone is the sensational discovery of a Cincinnati genius. It is wonderful. (adv)

BOGUS HEROES.

There have been a lot of bogus heroes in America since the army began dispatching men back to the States for sickness, wounds, training and other reasons. Every soldier who has gone back has been a hero until proved otherwise, and the temptation not to prove themselves otherwise has been too much for some.

There is the case of the Air Service machine who went back with heart trouble. His home town newspaper printed his "diary," which recounted several stirring fights over the German lines, all imaginary. The nearest he had been to the front was Issoudun.

There is the case of the sergeant who lectured on the battle of Cantigny for the Fourth Liberty Loan (and sold a lot of bonds, too) until he was found to have spent all his stay in France, barring traveling time, at Le Mans.

And there is the case, just to show how hard it was not to be a hero of the major who returned and, merely obeying military regulations, refused to be interviewed. As far as he had got toward gunfire and danger was a training school at Langers. Modestly declining to speak of his part in Chateau-Thierry fighting, was the second line of the heading over the story about him in the next morning's paper. The fault was the newspaper's, not the major's.

To date, in the eyes of the people back home, every soldier who has been in Europe has undergone the horrors of the front. Private Johnnie Jones, of the S. O. S., whose greatest hardship in this war was taps at 9:30, was pictured in his home journal and captioned, "John Jones of This City, Now Battling For Freedom In The Trenches." It is going to be hard to convince the home folks that of the 2,000,000 Americans in France, half of them, through no fault of their own, of course, never got under fire.

But, once the idea is around, and once we get back with our firsthand knowledge of affairs over here, the bogus hero is going to have a pretty thorny trail. — Stars and Stripes.

THE DOCTOR AWAY FROM HOME WHEN MOST NEEDED

People are often very much disappointed to find that their physician is away from home when they most need his services. Diseases like pain in the stomach are bowels, colic and diarrhoea require prompt treatment and have in many instances proven fatal before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. The right way is to keep at hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy. No physician can prescribe a better medicine for these diseases. By having it in the house you escape much pain and suffering and all risk. Buy it now; it may save life. (june-adv)

IS INTERESTED IN SUCCESS OF FACTORY GIRL

Mrs. Webster Says She's Always Advising Co-workers to Try Trutona.

LOUISVILLE, KY., June 9.—"I'm always recommending Trutona to the three hundred girls that work with me." Mrs. Nannie Webster, an employee of the American Tobacco Co., here, said recently.

"Before I took Trutona I used to go from four to six days without a bowel action," she continued. "I was extremely nervous. Even little things irritated me terribly. My sister said if I kept on nobody would live with me. My appetite was very irregular. These troubles had bothered me for the last ten years.

"I feel like a new woman and life is really worth living, since I've taken Trutona. My bowels are more regular now and my appetite is fine. I'm not nervous any more, either. The girls at the factory are always remarking how much better I look now. The pains in my arms, shoulders and head that I formerly experienced have all disappeared."

Trutona, the perfect tonic, is especially beneficial for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, catarrhal complaints, nervousness, sleeplessness, loss of appetite and the like. It is also a splendid reconstructive tonic.

Trutona is now being introduced and explained in Paris at G. S. Van den & Son's. (adv)

FRANCE WARNED ABOUT WAR IN 1913.

In the course of his story of that most astounding treason intrigue of the great war, the Caillaux case, C. P. Connally writes in Everybody's:

"Leon Daudet, son of Alphonse Daudet, and one of the editors of L'Action Francaise, is the author of a book, 'Before the War,' which appeared in 1913, and in which he outlined the preparations made by Germany to conquer France. He showed how Germany had made herself master of the wheat, of the iron and of the other products of France, and how under the guise of commerce she had acquired the most important military depots of the latter country—buying up farms along the frontier and making maps of all the country around about. The French people laughed at Daudet's 'nightmare.' They did not suspect that not only was Daudet right, but that Germany had reached out and captured the political machinery of France, or a good part of it, and that its unseen hand guided the political destinies of the men who were to control French statecraft during the war—and who would have controlled it, but for the dogged courage and patriotism of one man—Clemenceau, the Tiger of France.

"Joseph Caillaux, the overshadowing figure in this international conspiracy, languishes in a prison on the outskirts of Paris, awaiting trial. Some of his followers and confederates have paid the high penalty for treason, among them Bolo and Duval. The others are serving various terms in jail."

HISTORICAL DRIVE IN KENTUCKY.

June is historical month in Kentucky. Every county in the State is now engaged in making a permanent record of the part it played in the world war.

The records of the soldiers are being made on war record sheets. The records of the civilians are being made in the form of reports of the work done by the County Council of Defense, Red Cross Chapters, Liberty Loan Campaign Committees, Women's Clubs and other organizations which took part in winning the war.

When these records are completed they will be bound in permanent form and placed in the archives of the county.

The Kentucky Council of Defense inaugurated this work in September, 1918, by appointing State and County Historians. These historians are engaged in the laborious task of compiling complete lists of the men who have lost their lives, those who have been wounded and those who have won special honors. They are also making a complete roster of all men in the service. A special effort is being made to get a complete list of the volunteers, and those who have been for a long time in the regular army. Every person who has a relative in the service should make it a personal duty to see that a War Record blank is filled for such person and handed to the County Historian.

CATARHAL DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

By local application, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound of imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Drugists, 75c.

SECRETARY OF TREASURY DISCUSSES WAR SAVINGS STAMPS.

Secretary Glass, in an interview given at Washington, discussed War Stamps as a permanent investment as follows:

"War Savings Stamps afford an excellent vehicle for increasing capital and earning power.

"Many persons have not taken the War Savings Stamp seriously as an investment, but the fact that they may be bought in as large a quantity as $1,000 face value during 1919, at such favorable interest return, makes them most desirable for the average man or family.

"Definite plans for the continuance of the issue in coming years of small Government securities are being worked out.

"Although War Savings Stamps sales this year do not approach the high marks made under stimulation of war need last year, their absorption by the public thus far has been satisfactory.

"Savings in all channels shrink during the early months of the years, and it is expected that War Savings Stamp sales, along with postal savings and savings bank deposits, will grow steadily throughout the year.

"Co-operation is sought earnestly in the matter of keeping Thrift and War Savings Stamps on sale, so that no one so inclined may fail to have opportunity to invest his money wisely."

CHRONIC CONSTIPATION

Perhaps you have never thought of it, but this disorder is due to a lack of moisture in the residual of the food. If you will drink an abundance of water, eat raw fruits and take lots of outdoor exercises, you may be able eventually to overcome it entirely. In the meantime use the most mild and gentle laxatives. Strong and harsh cathartics take too much water out of the system and make a bad matter worse. Chamberlain's Tablets are easy and pleasant to take, and most agreeable in effect. Give them a trial.
